Fund Manager's Commentary

During 1H2019, global risk asset markets posted a strong recovery from the lows seen in December last year. The recovery however, was volatile driven by investor concerns regarding global growth. Trade war fears rocked global markets during the month of May (with MSCI ACWI falling 5.9% during the month) as US increased pressure on China to execute a deal by indicating higher tariffs on Chinese products. The effects of global developments in Emerging markets were stronger than in the US, with the EM equity index posting a decline of 7.5% during the same month. Since May, safe havens rallied, with Gold and JPY posting strong gains. In commodities space, strong recovery in oil markets suffered pullbacks; as investors adjusted their expectations in line with global developments.

Trade fears caused significant deterioration in sentiments, causing Chinese Yuan to weaken by 2.8%. US Dollar on the other hand strengthened, as USD yields chased down yields on other currencies.

Despite earlier expectations of continuity of hawkish FED cuts, trade war quickly changed the course and outlook of global economy and actual growth figures. In 1H2019, the market did not see any FED cuts, instead the global slowdown caused market participants to price in 2-3 (25bps) cuts for 2H2019. Due to such sentiments, USD 10 year yields remained under pressure and declined by 68bps during the period. Short-term rates followed a similar path, with 3 Month Libor declining by 49bps to 2.32%, and 3 Month Saibor falling by 26bps to 2.72%. Due to declining interest rates, money markets remained adequately liquid.

During 1H 2019, Jadwa Saudi Riyal Murabaha Fund had a total annualized return of 2.39% taking the fund's total annualized return since inception (on 30 June 2007) to 1.30%. The fund outperformed its benchmark, by 0.33% for the 1H 2019 and has outperformed its benchmark by 0.45% on annualized basis since inception.

Independent auditor's report on review of condensed interim financial statements

To the Unitholders of Jadwa Saudi Riyal Murabaha Fund

Introduction

We have reviewed the accompanying 30 June 2019 condensed interim financial statements of Jadwa Saudi Riyal Murabaha Fund (the "Fund"), managed by Jadwa Investment Company (the "Fund Manager"), which comprises:

- the condensed interim statement of financial position as at 30 June 2019;
- the condensed interim statement of comprehensive income for the six-month period ended 30 June 2019;
- the condensed interim statement of changes in net assets (equity) attributable to the Unitholders for the six-month period ended 30 June 2019;
- the condensed interim statement of cash flows for the six-month period ended 30 June 2019; and
- the notes to the condensed interim financial statements.

The Fund Manager is responsible for the preparation and presentation of these condensed interim financial statements in accordance with IAS 34, 'Interim Financial Reporting' that is endorsed in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and to comply with the applicable provisions of the Investment Funds Regulations issued by Capital Market Authority, the Fund's Terms and Conditions and the Information Memorandum. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these condensed interim financial statements based on our review.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with the International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, 'Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity' that is endorsed in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing that are endorsed in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying 30 June 2019 condensed interim financial statements of Jadwa Saudi Riyal Murabaha Fund are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34, 'Interim Financial Reporting' that is endorsed in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

9. LAST VALUATION DAY

10. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value measurement

The Fund measures certain financial instruments at fair value at each statement of financial position date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- In the principal market for the asset or liability; or
- In the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Fund. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest. The Fund uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs. Changes in assumptions about these factors could affect the fair value of financial instruments.

Valuation models

The fair values of financial instruments that are traded in active markets are based on prices obtained directly from an exchange on which the instruments are traded or obtained from a broker that provides an unadjusted quoted price from an active market for identical instruments. For all other financial instruments, the Fund determines fair values using other valuation techniques.

For financial instruments that trade infrequently and have little price transparency, fair value is less objective and requires varying degrees of judgment depending on liquidity, uncertainty of market factors, pricing assumptions and other risks affecting the specific instrument.

Fair value hierarchy

The Fund measures fair values using the following fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements.

Level 1: Inputs that are quoted market prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical instruments.

Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices). This category includes instruments valued using: quoted market prices in active markets for similar instruments; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are considered less than active; or other valuation techniques in which all significant inputs are directly or indirectly observable from market data.

Level 3: Inputs that are unobservable. This category includes all instruments for which the valuation technique includes inputs not based on observable data and the unobservable inputs have a significant effect on the instrument's valuation. This category includes instruments that are valued based on quoted prices for similar instruments but for which significant unobservable adjustments or assumptions are required to reflect differences between the instruments.

Carrying amounts and fair value

As of reporting date, all financial assets and liabilities are measured at amortized cost and their carrying values are a reasonable approximation of fair value.

12. EVENTS AFTER THE END OF THE REPORTING PERIOD

There are no events subsequent to the statement of financial position date which require adjustments of or disclosure in the financial statements or notes thereto.

13. APPROVAL OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

These condensed interim financial statements were authorized for issue by the Fund Manager on 5 Dhul-Hijjah 1440H (corresponding to 6 August 2019).
